

Simple Medical Case Report Outline

1. Title

[Provide a concise and descriptive title for the case report]

2. Abstract

[Brief summary of the case, key findings, and importance]

3. Introduction

[Background information and rationale for reporting the case]

4. Case Presentation

[Patient information: age, gender, relevant history]

[Presenting complaints and symptoms]

[Clinical findings]

[Diagnostic assessment and results]

[Therapeutic interventions]

[Follow-up and outcomes]

5. Discussion

[Interpretation of findings]

[Comparison with relevant literature]

[Lessons learned and implications]

6. Conclusion

[Main take-away message]

7. References

[List of relevant references]

8. Acknowledgements

[Any acknowledgements, if necessary]