

College Admissions Personal Statement Skeleton

Introduction

Introduce yourself and capture the reader's attention. Mention a defining moment, unique trait, or motivation.

Academic Background & Interests

Describe your academic strengths, interests, and what drives your pursuit of knowledge.

Extracurricular Involvement

Share significant extracurricular activities, leadership roles, or community involvement.

Challenges or Growth Experiences

Reflect on challenges faced, what you learned, and how they shaped you.

Why This College?

Explain why you are interested in this college and how you would contribute or benefit from it.

Conclusion

Reiterate your aspirations and leave a lasting impression.
